Section 3.8. Reinvestment of Management Fees. (a) Pursuant to the terms set forth in the Management Agreement, the Manager or any of its Affiliates may reinvest an amount equal to any of the Net Base Management Fee or the Net Performance Fee in this Trust by the acquisition of additional CBFIs issued by the Trustee, precisely in the terms set forth in the Management Agreement, with the prior authorization of the Ordinary Holders Meeting. To the extent a specific situation is not covered by the provisions of this Agreement, the Trustee may act upon the instructions of the Manager.

Section 8.2. Limits on Liability. (a) The Trustee shall not be liable and does not assume any obligation or liability except for (x) liability for any breach of applicable law or regulation, (y) liability for any breach of or default under this Agreement, and (z) liability for negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Trustee shall not be responsible for:

(i) acts or omissions of the Trustee that are consistent with the terms of this Agreement, that are undertaken by the Trustee to fulfill the Purposes of the Trust or are undertaken upon the instructions of those Persons authorized to give such instructions in accordance with this Agreement (including the Common Representative and the Manager);

(ii) acts or omissions of the other parties to this Agreement (including the Common Representative and the Manager), or third parties or of authorities that may impede or make fulfillment of the Purposes of the Trust more difficult;

(iii) any delay or default in payment resulting from an insufficiency of funds in the Trust Estate or from a breach of this Agreement by the Common Representative; or

(iv) any representation made in this Agreement by the other parties to this Agreement or in any other document delivered in connection with this Agreement.

(b) Unless provided otherwise in this Agreement or applicable law or regulation, the Trustee will not be obligated to confirm or verify the authenticity of any notice, report or certificate that must be delivered (other than by the Trustee) pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Unless provided otherwise in this Agreement or applicable law or regulation, the Trustee will not in any manner be liable out of its own assets in respect of its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 8.3. Defense of the Trust Estate. (a) If the Trustee has knowledge of any default or breach under the terms of this Agreement or the CBFIs or receives a judicial, administrative or other notice of a claim or dispute with respect to this Agreement or the CBFIs or if for any other reason it is necessary to defend the Trust Estate, the Trustee will give notice to the Technical Committee, the Manager and the Common Representative of such event or receipt of such notice within 1 (one) Business Day following the date on which it obtained knowledge thereof or the date on which it received the respective notice (as applicable), provided, that, subject to the provisions of Section 8.3, the delivery of such notice shall not release the Trustee from any liability.

(b) Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Section 8.3(a) or if the Manager so requests it in writing, the Trustee shall grant a general or special power of attorney on the terms and conditions specified by the Manager and in favor of the attorneys-in-fact designated in writing by the Manager under the Manager's responsibility and without any liability for the Trustee to carry out the defense of the Trust Estate; provided, that in the absence thereof, the Common Representative may deliver such request to the Trustee. All of the fees and other expenses that result from any claim or defense will be paid out of the Trust Estate without any liability for the Trustee in accordance with, and subject to the exceptions under, Section 8.2(a).

(c) Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Section 8.3(a), the Manager (and, in the absence thereof, the Common Representative) shall appoint or designate a Person to defend the Trust Estate and/or take any other appropriate actions. If the Manager or the Common Representative fails to appoint or designate a Person to defend the Trust Estate and/or take any other appropriate actions in the foregoing terms, and it is likely that such lack of defense or action will have a material adverse effect or, in the event of an emergency, the lack of immediate attention to which could have a material adverse effect or would in the opinion of the Trustee otherwise compromise the Trust Estate, then the Trustee, without liability except in case of negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, will grant the required powers for conducting such defense or taking such actions to the Person or Persons that the Trustee deems appropriate in its sole discretion and will give the necessary instructions or undertake any other actions it deems appropriate for the effective defense of the Trust Estate, until such time as the Manager (or in the absence thereof, the Common Representative) makes such appointment or designation and delivers the appropriate written instructions in connection with such defense or actions.

(d) The Trustee will not be liable for the acts of the attorneys-in-fact appointed by it in accordance with this Section 8.3 or for the payment of their fees or expenses except as may result from the Trustee's negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) If an unfavorable judgment to the Trust or the Trustee results from any such action, payments of documented costs and expenses will be borne by the Trust Estate, except in the event of negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) of the Trustee as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. This provision shall be transcribed in the powers of attorney the Trustee grants. The Trustee will have no liability for such costs and expenses if the Trust Estate is insufficient to cover such costs and expenses.

(f) Except for such costs and expenses that result from the negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) of the Trustee, as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, the Trustee shall not be obligated to make any disbursement or incur any expense out of its own trust estate. Any disbursement or documented cost that it may be obligated to make in furtherance of the Purposes of the Trust will be paid out of the Trust Estate, without liability to the Trustee if the Trust Estate is insufficient to cover such costs and expenses, except as may result from the Trustee's negligence, dolo or bad faith (mala fe) as may be determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(g) Notwithstanding the above, and unless as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Trustee, its officers, trustee delegates, employees and its attorneys-in-fact:

(i) may, if necessary under the terms of this Agreement, consult with any legal or tax advisor or any other expert they may determine to consult at their discretion; provided, that any costs and expenses in connection therewith shall be paid by the Trust Estate as part of the Trust Expenses, and

(ii) shall not be responsible for determining or investigating the compliance or performance of the other parties to this Agreement, with any of its terms or conditions or of any of the obligations assumed by any of such other parties under this Agreement.

(h) The parties to this Agreement will notify the Trustee of any circumstance that they have knowledge of and that may be considered to materially and adversely affect the Trust Estate or the Trustee under this Agreement, no later than 10 (ten) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such circumstance.

Section 8.4. Access. The Trustee agrees that, with sufficient prior notice, it will permit any authorized representative of the Manager, the Technical Committee or the Common Representative, during the Trustee's normal business hours, to examine and audit its ledgers, records, reports and other documents and materials of the Trustee relating to (a) the fulfillment of the Trustee's obligations under this Agreement, (b) any payments of fees or expenses of the Trustee in connection with such fulfillment, and (c) any claim made by the Trustee under this Agreement. In addition, the Trustee shall permit such authorized representatives to make copies and extracts of any such books and records and to discuss such information with the Trustee's officers and employees. Each of the Manager, members of the Technical Committee and the Common Representative, as the case may be, shall determine what such disclosure is pursuant to its obligations under this Agreement. The Trustee shall maintain all such pertinent books, records, reports and other documents and materials for the corresponding period, as required under applicable law and regulation.

Section 8.5. Third Party Information. The Trustee shall not be liable for the accuracy or quality of the information provided to the Trustee by the Settlor, the Manager, the Common Representative, the Holders or any third party. If the Trustee provides to any Person information prepared by the Settlor or any agent thereof, it will not be liable for the accuracy of such information. If the information provided to the Trustee is inconsistent with the information that the Trustee has in its possession, the Trustee will notify the parties of such event.

Section 8.6. Books and Records. The Trustee will be obligated to maintain such books and records as are required under applicable law and regulation. The Trustee may, in addition, maintain such additional records and information as are required under this Agreement, whether it be directly or through the Manager.

The information set forth in this Section 8.7 shall reflect the information of the Trust on a consolidated basis with the Investment Trusts, pursuant to the CNBV Regulations when permitted under the applicable accounting standards, including IFRS.

(b) The Common Representative and the Technical Committee shall have the authority to supervise the Trustee's compliance with the obligations set forth in this Section 8.7.

Section 8.8. Resignation of the Trustee. Subject to Sections 8.10 and 8.11 below, the Trustee may resign as trustee of the Trust by means of a written notice delivered to the Manager and the Common Representative at least 60 (sixty) calendar days in advance of the effective date of such resignation, and only in the cases set forth in Article 391 of the LGTOC. Immediately following the receipt of the Trustee's resignation notice by the Manager and the Common Representative, the Manager will appoint a substitute Trustee; provided, that the resigning Trustee shall not cease to be the Trustee hereunder until the substitute Trustee signs and delivers the acknowledgment referred to in Section 8.11(b).

The Manager or the Ordinary Holders Meeting shall appoint a substitute Trustee, which shall be acceptable to the Manager (if the Ordinary Holders delivered such notice) or to the Ordinary Holders Meeting (if the Manager delivered such notice). The Trustee shall not cease to be the Trustee hereunder until the substitute Trustee executes the acknowledgment document referred to in Section 8.11(b)

Section 8.10. Obligations of the Trustee upon Termination. (a) If the Trustee ceases to act as trustee of the Trust due to the early termination of its duties in accordance with Sections 8.8 or 8.9, the Trustee shall prepare reports and accounts related to the Trust Estate, which will be delivered on the date of that such termination becomes effective, together with the books, records and any other document pertaining to the Trust. To the extent such reports and accounts are required to be delivered on a periodic basis under this Agreement, the Trustee shall only be required to provide such reports and accounts from the date of the most recent report or that accounts that have been delivered recently. The Manager and the Common Representative shall have 30 (thirty) calendar days to review and, if applicable, provide comments or request clarifications on such reports and accounts. If any such comments or clarifications are provided or requested, the Trustee will address such comments or clarification requests and if applicable amend and redeliver such reports and accounts. In the event the Manager and the Common Representative do not provide any comments or request any clarifications within such 30 (thirty) calendar day period, the reports and accounts shall be deemed accepted by the Manager and the Common Representative and the Trustee shall be released from any liability regarding such reports and accounts.

(b) The Trustee shall continue acting as trustee of the Trust in accordance with this Agreement until a substitute Trustee has been appointed and all the Trust Accounts and all amounts therein have been transferred to the substitute Trustee, and such substitute Trustee has accepted its appointment and has taken office in accordance with Section 8.11(b). For the avoidance of doubt, until the substitute Trustee has taken office and received all assets of the Trust held by the Trustee, the Trustee shall continue to act as trustee of the Trust and shall continue to perform all of its obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, its reporting obligations and the management of the Trust Accounts).

(c) The Trustee agrees to carry out all actions and execute all documents that may be necessary or desirable to facilitate the replacement of the Trustee and as may be requested by the Immediately thereafter, the Trustee that has resigned or is being removed shall transfer all the assets held thereby in its capacity as Trustee to the substitute Trustee and only at such time shall the resignation or removal of the Trustee be effective and the substitute Trustee assume all the rights, powers and obligations of the Trustee hereunder.

(c) Such substitute Trustee shall, upon its appointment becoming effective, have the same rights and obligations as the Trustee that has resigned or been removed and will be deemed to be the “Trustee” for all purposes under this Agreement.

Section 8.12. Fees of the Trustee. As consideration for its services hereunder, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive the fees (including VAT) agreed in writing with the Manager from time to time. The Trustee’s fees shall constitute Issuance Expenses or Trust Expenses, as applicable.

If a Covered Person consults with the Technical Committee with respect to a matter giving rise to a conflict of interest, and if the Technical Committee waives such conflict of interest (provided, that only the members of the Technical Committee that are Independent Members shall be entitled to vote on such matter) then such Covered Person shall not have any liability to the Trust, the Investment Trusts, the Common Representative, the Trustee, the Settlor or any Holder for actions in respect of such matter taken in good faith by such Covered Person, including actions in the pursuit of their own interests, and will be deemed to have satisfied their duties (including any fiduciary duties) related thereto to the fullest extent permitted by law.

If any such Proceeding is brought against a Covered Person (other than a derivative suit in right of the Trust), the Trust will be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense thereof to the extent that the Trust wishes, with counsel satisfactory to such Covered Person. The Trust shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement of such Proceeding that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Covered Person of a release from all liability in respect to such Proceeding and the related Claim.

Section 13.6. Survival of Protection. The provisions of this Article XIII shall continue to afford protection to each Covered Person regardless of whether such Covered Person remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Covered Person became entitled to indemnification in accordance with this Article XIII and regardless of any subsequent amendment to this Agreement, and no amendment to this Agreement shall reduce or restrict the extent to which these indemnification provisions apply to actions taken or omissions made prior to the date of such amendment.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 13.9 shall prohibit or limit the Manager from causing the Trust to make such payments if the Manager determines in its sole discretion that the Trust is not likely to obtain sufficient funds from such other sources in a timely fashion, or that attempting to obtain such funds would be futile or not in the best interests of the Trust (for example, nothing in this Section 13.9 shall require the Manager to cause the Trust to sell any Investment before such time the Manager determines is advisable).

It is the express intention of the parties hereto that the provisions for the indemnification of Covered Persons in this Article XIII may be relied upon by such Covered Persons and may be enforced by such Covered Persons (or by the Manager on behalf of any such Covered Person; provided, that the Manager shall not have any obligation to so act for or on behalf of any such Covered Person) against the Trust pursuant to this Agreement, as if such Covered Persons were parties hereto.
